

LA FORTUNA

Palacio de las Pampas

La Fortuna is a historical palace that dates to the year 1900 and was fully renovated in 2008.

This stunning estate perfectly combines contemporary art and modern comforts with the traditional countryside from Argentina's glorious Belle Epoque at the turn of the century creating a unique & sophisticated atmosphere.

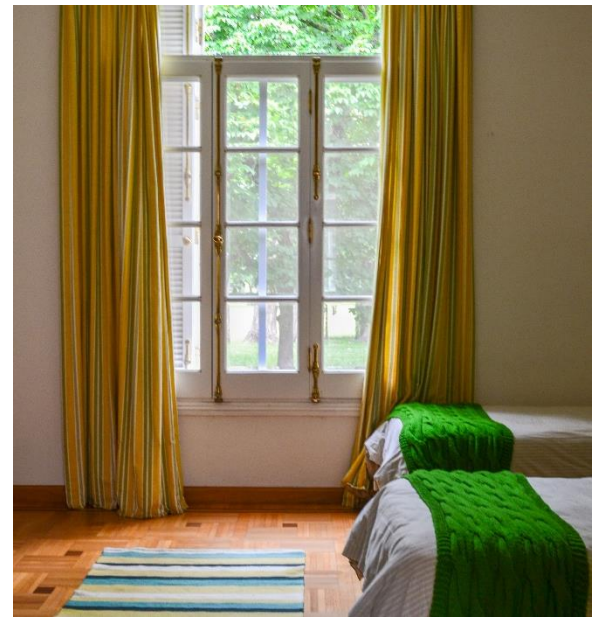

The Palace can host up to 16 guests in a Master Suite with king size bed, four suites with queen beds, and three other suites with three twin beds each. All rooms have walk in closets and private bathrooms.

On the ground floor there is a grand living room, a study with a two-story wood paneled library, a formal dining room for 18 people, the master suite with a private terrace, an apartment with a king bed suite and a second room with three twin beds, the main kitchen, the breakfast room and a large terrace.

The second floor has two queen bed suites, two rooms with three twin beds each, a children's playroom, the billiard room, a service pantry, and an observatory with a telescope.

The basement is host to an impressive wine cellar, a private cinema and a baby grand piano. An elevator connects all the floors in the palace.

On the gardens of the property there is a beautiful large swimming pool with an attractive solarium and relaxing patio area. The pool side cabana has a complete kitchen and a traditional Argentina barbecue; the perfect place for an informal lunch.
